The measure, sponsored by Rep. David Simmons, a Republican from Fort Myers, exempts some of the region's best offshore drilling from federal law, "for the purpose of coastal and marine oil and gas exploration, production and transportation." Gov. Rick Scott had told environmental groups they wouldn't be satisfied with the bill's language, and on Wednesday an aide to House Speaker Richard Corcoran confirmed the bill would be unchanged. Scott had said he would veto any bill that didn't exempt all of the region's commercially-viable, yet endangered, oil and natural gas resources. 570a42141b
