A classic, beloved story returns in a deluxe e-book edition. Nell and Jack have been running their shop for five years, just as their town has been going up in flames. Their daughter may or may not be safe. Nell holds on to her shop for dear life, because she's scared what will happen if she doesn't. And Jack just keeps running his hands through his hair. But what will they do when the county takes it back, and they can no longer afford to stay? The fire has already begun to spread, and the only hope Nell has is a blessing from an old, old friend. Looking Glass is a collection of 10 stories that takes readers on a journey into the heart and soul of a place and a life that is impossible to forget. Donna Kauffman has been a writer for 18 years, and her work has appeared in many magazines and anthologies. She's a serial entrepreneur and the owner of Vandalia 4-H. Currently she lives in Tennessee with her family.Q: Textbook Recommendation for Radio Communications I'm a student majoring in computer science and I'm taking a course in radio frequency communication for which I don't have any textbooks. I'm using the first two sections of J.G. Proakis's excellent textbook to guide me through the theory and I'm having a lot of trouble. I've been able to build all of the circuits listed in the textbook but everything is too complex for me to understand completely and I don't understand the various equations such as "gain" and "ripple". I also don't understand the 82138339de
