Come October, you will be hearing my cries for Pumpkin Spice Cookies from way back in 2009. I'm so excited to be baking the first-ever Baked Pumpkin Spice cupcakes this weekend. (If you are a new reader, the PSCS are a recipe I'm famous for and have perfected over the years. They are butterscotch or vanilla frosted with the very best gingersnaps and toasted pumpkin pie spice.) So what better way to celebrate the season and the first fall baking but a cupcake! I promise, these cupcakes are super easy and have no baking involved. They are almost too good to not eat immediately, which is why I made them last weekend. And now I want to bake them today! To celebrate the season, I took these Honey cupcakes and dipped them in white chocolate, rolled in the toasted, shredded toasted coconut. I then drizzled on some caramel corn drizzle. Now, caramel corn isn't exactly a seasonal flavor, so I understand if you feel a little underwhelmed. But I think these are a pretty special treat this time of year! So have a look below and let me know what you think. Wanna see how they turned out? Check them out here, and don't forget to swing by Farley's Cafe for the Honeycupcake Martini! The Baked Pumpkin Spice Cupcake 2 cups all-purpose flour 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon baking soda 1 teaspoon nutmeg 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon 1/2 teaspoon allspice 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves 1 cup sugar 1/2 cup butter, softened 2 eggs 1 teaspoon vanilla extract 1 cup butterscotch chips or chips of your choice 1/2 cup canned pumpkin 1/4 cup caramel popcorn 2 teaspoons toasted pumpkin pie 1cdb36666d
