“We want to make it possible for all players to feel what it is like to compete and express themselves on a daily basis,” said FIFA 20 producer, Ali Habeeb. “We want to transform and expand our technology for years to come, so that we can continue to deliver awesome games and play experiences that inspire people to chase their dreams.” Eight players will compete in high intensity matches at the 20th FIFA Congress held in London from October 2-5. As part of the event, FIFA will launch its “The Journey to London” campaign, inviting players and the UK public to compete in the FIFANews World ranking simulator. The winner will then be invited to compete in “FIFA London 2019,” the FIFA World Cup™ official goalkeeping mask held by goalkeeper Neville for the ages during the tournament in Brazil. To celebrate the launch of FIFA 20, FIFA has also unveiled the latest edition of the official FIFA 20 wallpaper collection from Marco Carbó using modern art technology. Three new designs featuring the official FIFA 20 logotype have been added to the FIFA 20 wallpaper collection; titled “FIFA 20 Journey,” “FIFA 20 Championship,” and “FIFA 20 Cup.” The new designs are available for iOS and Android devices, and all of the designs can be downloaded from the web. The FIFA team will be on-hand at the FIFA 20 launch event at the Games Convention, where the player community will be able to get hands-on with the latest version of FIFA. The seventh installment in the FIFA video game series will be released on October 27 for PlayStation 4, Xbox One, and PC.
